Maui 107, a stunning oceanfront home, was designed by a renowned New Zealand architect. Located at Makena Beach, Kihei, on Maui's southern coast, this residence is unique, extremely private, and offers a high-tech security system.

Sleek and contemporary style is found throughout the home. A number of pavilions wrap around a beautifully landscaped central living court and swimming pool offering ocean views and privacy. With spacious living areas, multiple indoor and outdoor dining areas, and generously roofed terraces, the residence provides ample space for sheltered, relaxed living.

Motorized doors open up the Great Room to the oceanside terrace and rolling lawn, providing a seamless flow between the indoors and outdoors. With five separate buildings, linked by broad covered ways and wrapped around an open courtyard, the living pavilions are able to be totally opened to encourage the local tradewind breezes and provide views from the courtyard through to the ocean.

Boasting five bedrooms, the sleeping arrangements are ideal for families or groups traveling together. The spacious Master Bedroom is located upstairs in the main house and has an expansive wardrobe, a stunning bathroom, and a private bathing terrace. The remaining four bedrooms are situated on the ground floor with two of them located behind the swimming pool. There are three queen-bedded rooms and a fourth bedroom with two double beds; all enjoy private bathrooms.

Close by is Wailea, a resort community of luxury hotels, notable restaurants, boutiques, and galleries. Wailea and Makena feature five 18-hole championship golf courses and some of Hawaii's finest spa facilities.

This villa is unique to Maui and is the ultimate in luxury.
